INTRODUCTION TO THE AMERICAN PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION (APA) REFERENCING STYLE

The American Psychological Association referencing style (or APA as it is more commonly known) is used across a variety of disciplines. The sixth and latest edition was published in 2010.

IN-TEXT REFERENCES

- APA uses the 'author-date' style of referencing. That is, in-text references (generally) appear in the following format: (Author's Last Name, Year of Publication).
Example: (Austen, 1813).
- You are also permitted to include the Author's name in a sentence, omitting it from the brackets.
Example: Austen (1813)
- When directly quoting from a source, you must include page number(s) and enclose the quote in double quotation marks.
Example: "A woman must have money and a room of her own if she is to write fiction" (Woolf, 1929, p. 6).
Note: For multiple pages, use the abbreviation 'pp.' Include the full page range, i.e. '64-67'.
Example: Woolf (1929, pp. 64-67) observes that...
- When paraphrasing or referring to an idea contained in another work, the Publication manual of the American Psychological Association advises: "you are encouraged to provide a page or paragraph number, especially when it would help an interested reader locate the relevant passage in a long or complex text" (American Psychological Association [APA], 2010, p. 171). It is recommended you verify this advice with your unit of study coordinator, lecturer or tutor for each subject.
- If you are referring to an entire work, include only the Author's Last Name and Year of Publication in brackets. If you are referring to part of a work, you must include Page Numbers or their equivalent (see specific examples for more information).
- When citing a source you have not read yourself, but which is referred to in a source you have read (also known as 'secondary referencing'), use the following method:
Moore (as cited in Maxwell, 1999, p. 25) stated that...
Important: You would cite Maxwell, not Moore, in the Reference List.
Note: It is always preferable to cite the original source. "Use secondary sources sparingly when the original work is out of print, unavailable through usual sources, or not available in English" (American Psychological Association [APA], 2010, p. 178).

REFERENCE LIST

- The Reference List should appear at the end of your work on a separate page.
- Only include references you have cited in your work.
- All references should have a hanging indent. That is, all lines of a reference subsequent to the first line should be indented (see examples in the tables below).

- In general, references should be listed alphabetically by the last name of the first author of each work.
- Special Reference List cases:
 - In the case of works by different authors with the same family name, list references alphabetically by the authors' initials.
 - In the case of multiple works by the same author in different years, list references chronologically (earliest to latest).
 - In the case of multiple works by the same author in the same year, list references alphabetically by title in the Reference List.
- When referring to Books, Book Chapters, Article Titles or Webpages, capitalise only the first letter of the first word of a title and subtitle, and proper nouns.
Example: Exploring gifted education : Australian and New Zealand perspectives
- When referring to Journal Titles, capitalise all major words (do not capitalise words such as 'of', 'and', & 'the' unless they are the first word in the title).
Example: Journal of Exercise Science and Fitness

BOOKS & BOOK CHAPTERS

One author – in-text reference placement

Note: There are two main ways to use in-text references. Firstly, to focus on the information from your source – ‘information prominent’. Secondly, to focus on the author – ‘author prominent’.

‘Information prominent’ (the author’s name is within parentheses):

The conclusion reached in a recent study (Cochrane, 2007) was that...

OR‘Author prominent’ (the author’s name is outside the parentheses):

Cochrane (2007) concluded that...

Cochrane, A. (2007). Understanding urban policy: A critical approach. Malden, MA: Blackwell Publishing.

One author – when fewer than 40 words are quoted

Include the material in the paragraph and include specific page number/s.

Use quotation marks to show the exact words.

An interesting view was expressed that “the connection of high profile developments to their surrounding environment has increasingly been questioned” (Cochrane, 2007, p. 117).

OR

An interesting view was expressed by Cochrane (2007) that “the connection of high profile developments to their surrounding environment has increasingly been questioned” (p. 117).

Cochrane, A. (2007). Understanding urban policy: A critical approach. Malden, MA: Blackwell Publishing.

One author – when 40 or more words are quoted

Begin quoting the material on a new line, indent it 5 spaces (use the indent tool to keep all lines of the quote evenly indented), and include specific page number/s.

Omit the quotation marks.

Use double spacing for both your text and the indented quote.

Make sure the quote is exactly as it was published.

Much has been written about acute care. Finkelman (2006), for example, points out that:

There are many changes in acute care services occurring almost daily, and due to the increasing use of outpatient surgery, surgical services have experienced major changes. Hospitals are increasing the size of their outpatient or ambulatory surgery departments and adjusting to the need of moving patients into and out of the surgical service in 1 day or even a few hours. (p. 184).

Recently, this trend has been seen in some Australian hospitals and research here...

Palmer, G. R., & Short, S. D. (2010). Health care and public policy: An Australian analysis (4th ed.). Melbourne, Australia: Palgrave Macmillan.

Three to five authors

For the first in-text reference, list all the authors' family names, then use the first author's family name followed by 'et al.' for subsequent entries.

A recent study (Seeley, VanPutte, Regan, & Russo, 2011) concluded that...

Subsequent in-text reference/s:

Six to seven authors

For all in-text references, list only the first author's family name followed by 'et al.' All authors are included in the Reference List.

The Russian Revolution may never have succeeded if there hadn't already been widespread discontent among the Russian populace (Bulliet et al., 2005).

For books with eight or more authors, please follow the guidelines for journal articles with eight or more authors on page 7.

Works by different authors with the same family name

For in-text references, include the initials of the authors in question to enable readers to differentiate between them.

These techniques have been shown to improve test scores among primary school aged children (R. Smith, 2010).

If funding were enhanced, it is arguable these problems could be ameliorated (C. J. Smith & Laslett, 1993).

List references alphabetically by the authors' initials in the Reference List.

IN-TEXT REFERENCE

Several works by the same author in different years

When citing references separately, no special rule needs to be observed. When citing references collectively, separate years with a comma and insert years earliest to latest.

List references chronologically (earliest to latest) in the Reference List.

These techniques have changed markedly in the last decade (Greenspan, 2000, 2011).

Several works by the same author in the same year

Arrange alphabetically by title in the Reference List. Place lowercase letters ("a", "b", "c", etc.) immediately after the year.

"Educational change" has taken on a new meaning in recent years (Fullan, 1996b) ...

Several authors, different years, referred to collectively in your work

List sources alphabetically by family name in the in-text reference in the order in which they appear in the Reference List.

Separate each reference with a semicolon.
